Dear Doug,

Per our conversation on Monday, we wanted to clarify two matters referenced in the August 6, 2008 letter you received from us in which we proposed extending the SAG Commercials Contract and the AFTRA Radio and Television Recorded Commercials Contracts through March 31, 2009.

First, to be clear, we do not take the position that our proposed extension impacts the right of any JPC authorizer to de-authorize the JPC at the conclusion of the current contracts. Those authorizers, would, of course, retain an obligation to bargain independently with SAG and/or AFTRA. Second, we are amenable to a notice provision that gives the JPC at least 60 days to respond should either SAG or AFTRA notify the JPC of an intent to bargain separately, including an automatic extension of any contract then in effect as necessary for the JPC to have 60 days to respond before the expiration of the contract.

We hope this addresses all of your concerns. Please do not hesitate to contact either of us with any questions or additional concerns.

Sincerely,
